

CALIFORNIA STATE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

Biography

Vince Brown

Governor Schwarzenegger appointed Vincent Brown, as chief deputy director of the Department of Finance on December 1, 2005. Most recently, Vince served as senior advisor to the director of the Department of Finance. Prior to that, Brown was chief operating officer for the Office of the State Controller. He served as deputy executive officer for operations and assistant executive officer for financial and administrative services at the California Public Employees' Retirement System from 1995 to 2003. Brown's experience also includes two years as chief of administrative services and assistant program budget manager for the Department of Finance.